

Purchase Contract/Agreement

1. Seller guarantees the puppy is in good health, is up to date on immunizations, and has been dewormed at the time the buyer takes possession. Buyer has three business days to take the puppy to a veterinarian for an examination.
2. Seller guarantees puppy free from serious genetic or congenital disorders for 1 year from the date of sale, keeping in mind that genetic potential is also dependent on environmental factors such as stress, nutrition, infectious disease, and proper dog care. If a serious health issue is found, the seller should be contacted immediately and the seller will help pay for treatment costs in the amount up to the purchase price of the puppy or refund the puppy purchase price and take the puppy back.
3. The buyer bears all costs relating to the sale of the above animal, including transportation. The risk of loss or injury to the animal is on the buyer at all times after the dog leaves the seller.

Buyer's Responsibilities

1. Adequate premium quality dog food, fresh water, clean shelter, affection, and medical care upon sickness, disease, or injury. Maintenance should include an annual health exam and routine vaccinations as recommended by a board-certified veterinarian, and proper administration of heart worm preventative medication.
2. Keep their puppy at a healthy weight and groomed as needed.
3. Humane care and maintenance in accordance with all current and future state, county, and municipal laws and ordinances where the buyer resides.
4. A fenced yard or other humane means of routine and adequate exercise outdoors. The dog should not be kept chained or constantly outdoors.
5. A collar and identification tag and/or microchip. Never permit the dog to roam unattended.
6. The dog shall reside with the buyer.
7. The buyer shall notify the seller immediately if the dog cannot be kept by the buyer for any reason. The dog shall not be sold, transferred, or given to any individual or to any retail or wholesale establishment for the purpose of sale or resale to the public or to any research institution where medical experimentation or other practices take place.
8. The buyer and seller agree to keep each other informed of their current addresses and/or phone numbers.
